

Suffield.—Postmaster O. C. Bugbee of West Suffield had about $50 stolen from him the other day by a smooth stranger. Bugbee had the money in his hand and when someone called him to another room he laid the money down on the desk. On his return the money was gone, also the stranger.

Assaulted and Robbed At Westerly

Constable Geo. E. Burdick, of North Stonington, Set Upon by Six Negroes and Relieved of $135—Four Collide on Watch Hill Beach, Walter Nutt Has Ribs Broken Whistling Lover Ends in Jail—Westerly and White Rock Win in Saturday's Games.

In Wilcox park, Saturday, a large sized rat was spotted by a cat owned by Park Policeman Reardon, just as the rodent emerged from under the tool house in the rear of the cottage of Officer Reardon in the park. The rat ran here and there with the cat in pursuit, and finally the rat ran to the edge of the lake and dove into the water. The cat then discontinued the chase. The rat swam under water for quite a distance and then rose to the surface and headed for the opposite side of the lake. After making several ineffectual attempts to climb the straight upright concrete wall that encircles the lake and in order to escape being struck by a club in the hands of a park employee, the almost exhausted rat swam well out from the border of the lake, coasted swimming and then took an unconscious trip to Davy Jones' locker.

The largest trout that ran in Wilcox lake before all the trout were killed off by the sun-heated water, was caught by a cat in a stream at White Rock. The cat brought the fish into the house and it was rescued before any serious injury was done to it. The trout was caught during the closed season, was immediately placed in a bucket of water and delivered to Fish Commissioner Willard and given liberty in Wilcox park lake.

But it is here indeed, in imitation of the crocodile and the pickaninny, for a frog to grab a sparrow from the shore and take it away from the water. Such a thing was done in the small pond in Wilcox park, Saturday morning.

There was a group of chirping sparrows on the shore of the pond, close to the water's edge, when a large frog leaped among them, seized one in his mouth and dove into the pond. The act created great excitement among the sparrow family, for they chirped and hopped and then they came here and there with evident pugnacious intent. They did not seem in the least scared, for they did fly away, but instead seemed to hold numerous consultations, and after each would hover close to the water as if searching for their lost one, their activity indicating a desire for revenge.

Martin Babcock and Ambrose Maine, who recently served a jail term for stealing from a store in Westerly, are again in trouble. They are charged with stealing from Maine, the ice cream man, and father of Ambrose. Both were employed peddling ice cream and managed to steal five four-gallon ice cream tubs, valued at $15, two four-gallon cans of ice cream, valued at $8, and three ice cream cans, valued at $3, a total of $32. Babcock and Maine worked on the team together and in loading their stock, it is claimed, they stole the ice cream and receptacles.

It is believed this thievery has been going on for weeks, and finally Babcock and Maine were suspected. The case was given to Deputy Sheriff Casey and he soon had Babcock under arrest, but Maine managed to get away.

Babcock was arraigned before Judge Albert R. Stillman, in the Stonington town court, and was adjudged guilty. He was held for trial in the superior court in bonds of $250. Warren Randall became surety on the bond and Babcock was released. Officer Casey found the stolen ice cream receptacles in Babcock's cellar.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Maine.

George Cartwright, age 36, who claims to have come from Australia, has been annoying a mechanic street family by enticing a daughter, age 17, to remain away from home at unreasonable hours. The father of the girl resolved to break up the practice and notified Cartwright that it must stop, although he did not object to Cartwright calling on the girl at her home. This plan did not suit Cartwright. He persisted in standing in front of the house and whistling for the girl to come out. This annoyed the father and constituted a breach of the peace.

Complaint was made to Deputy Sheriff Casey and Cartwright was found guilty by Judge Stillman in the Stonington court and fined $3 and costs, amounting to $20. Cartwright could not pay and he was taken to the London jail Sunday, by Sheriff Casey.

Four bathers at Watch Hill beach were in trouble Sunday morning and one of them, Walter Nutt, night clerk at the Ocean house, was seriously injured. Two ribs were broken and his right wrist dislocated. Mr. Nutt, with Walter Shea of Westerly, was running up the beach toward Fort Mansfield, when two men, Messrs. Camp and Smith, ran out of the bathing pavilion and into Messrs. Nutt and Shea, the four coming together with great force. None of the others was injured. Nutt had not regained consciousness at 7 o'clock Sunday night.

George Edward Burdick, constable of North Stonington, was severely handled and robbed in Westerly Sunday afternoon. He started for home, after visiting acquaintances in the street, taking a short cut by way of White Rock. He says that when a short distance from the bridge he was held up and assaulted by six negroes and during the assault he was robbed of $145. Burdick said but for the timely assistance given by Frederick Miller, he would probably have been killed. When Miller appeared the negroes fled to the woods. Burdick had then been kicked in the face and body, there were many bruises and contusions.

BABY'S WATERY ECZEMA
Itched and Scratched Until Blood Ran—$50 Spent on Useless Treatments—Disease Seemed Incurable
CURED BY CUTICURA FOR $1.50

"My baby boy broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and unless we kept his little hands wrapped up all the time, he would scratch his face all the time. The physician gave an ointment which was so severe that my baby would scream when it was put on. We changed doctors and medicines until we had spent fifty dollars and more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. I bought only a dollar and a half worth of the Cuticura Remedies and they cured him. Mrs. W. M. Conway, Burnt Cabins, Pa., Sept. 18, 1908."

JEWETT CITY

Dayville Defeated 11-9 in 14-Inning Game—Outing of Aspinook Printers—Picnic of Baptist Sunday School.

Jewett City could think and talk of little but baseball Saturday evening. One hundred and fifty youngsters went to Wauregan and saw the home team win the second game from Wauregan in a closely contested game of 14 innings. The score was 11 to 9.

Jewett City and Putnam are still tied for the first place, with four more games to play. Next Saturday the game is with Putnam on their grounds, which, it is generally conceded, will practically settle the pennant question.

Outing to Eastern Point. The Aspinook printers, George Moeller foreman, with George Comager as a guest, enjoyed their annual outing on Saturday, going to Eastern Point via Norwich, from which point a boat specially chartered took them to their destination where a grand clam bake was enjoyed. There were eleven in the party and a most pleasurable day was spent.

Baptist Sunday School Picnic. The Baptist Sunday school held its annual picnic Saturday afternoon on the east bank of the Quinebaug on the Armstrong farm. There was a large company, who annihilated an enormous kettle of excellent clam chowder, in which many cooks had a hand, yet the group was not allowed to leave the enjoyment was a one inning ball game. The affair was in charge of Daniel L. Phillips, William H. Johnson and Charles F. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roberts of Springfield and Master Laverne Rainford of Norwich are guests at Julius Jewett's.

E. H. Hiscox and family enjoyed a day's outing at the Pachaug reservoir Saturday. Among nineteen other fish campers, who came to the place for the day, Hiscox and family were the only ones to catch a fish. They secured a good catch of fish. Mr. Brown landed a pickerel that felt but a few ounces short of the three pound mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Laque and daughter Yvonne are enjoying a three days' outing down the Providence river. They will visit Camp White, Crescent Park, and other points of interest.

There are two Lincoln pennies in town. One is owned by Col. John P. Gorman, which he received by mail from A. H. Burnham of Philadelphia. The other is owned by Benjamin R. Gardner, of Westerly, who received it first and bear the letters V. J. E.

Briefs and Personals. Mr. and Mrs. Victor L'Heureux have as their guests their nephew, Emile L'Heureux, of Quebec university, and their niece, Miss Antoinette L'Heureux, of New Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Greene and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eldredge and son of Wauregan, R. I. and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Browning of Norwich were guests of Mrs. Frank S. Brown on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tinker and son Richard of Willimantic spent Sunday at Charles E. Spicer's.

Highland and family on Sunday for a month's stay on Block Island. Prentice Wakefield has also gone for a week. John Gosda took the trip with them.

Miss Delphine Beauregard and her sister, Miss Zephire Beauregard, of Willimantic spent Sunday in Providence.

Claire Barker of Waterbury is at his father's, R. R. Barker's, in Lisbon.

Miss Annie Gorman is enjoying two weeks' vacation at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Oscar and Harold Spicer spent Saturday in Montville, the guests of Frank Corman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Babcock are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson of Mount Morris, Mich.
